FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960 edition of the "New York Times", a daily New York City newspaper, carried a full page advertisement captioned "What is Really Happening in Cuba?" The article maintained that the United States press has made certain charges against Cuba which are not true and the Fair Play for Cuba Committee was organized to tell the truth about Cuba in the interest of fair play. The advertisement closes with a note which states "This public appeal for fair play for Cuba has the support of a group of thinking individuals holding a variety of political persuasions, representing no one but themselves, linked here by a single common concern for the overriding principle of justice, which is always an issue whenever partisan interests clash with simple truth."

CHICAGO CHAPTER

A source advised in October, 1960, that the Chicago Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed during the summer of 1960 at Chicago, Illinois, under the direct guidance and leadership of RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the State Committee, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois. The Chicago Chapter, FPCC, maintains no headquarters at Chicago, but receives mail through Post Office Box 4555, Chicago 80, Illinois. Its meetings are held in public halls or homes of individual members.

A second source, in August, 1960, furnished a leaflet entitled, "What is Really Happening in Cuba?", distributed by the FPCC, Post Office Box 4555, Chicago 80, Illinois. The aims and purposes of the FPCC as set forth in this leaflet include the following: "To disseminate the truth, to combat untruth; to publish and distribute factual information which the United States mass media suppresses. In general, to contribute to foundations for peace, friendship and understanding between ourselves and the Cuban people." The leaflet reflects the FPCC plans to accomplish these aims: "By mailing of informational bulletins; organizing public meetings and forums; providing speakers, movies and slides for meetings of interested organizations; placing ads in newspapers; to visit Cuba and see for themselves what conditions really are."

The first source added that at a meeting of the Chicago Chapter, FPCC, held in Chicago on July 28, 1960, it was mentioned that the membership dues in the FPCC were $5 per year and it was decided by those present at the meeting that payment of the $5 dues would entitle one to dual membership in the national organization as well as the Chicago Chapter.

This same source advised that as of October, 1960, this Committee continued to exist, with the same aims and purposes and under the same direction.

The CP, USA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned, "What is Really Happening in Cuba", placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City, listed various sponsors of the Committee and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press on Cuban affairs.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself as one of the organizers of the FPCC. Also, Dr. SANTOS-BUCH identified ROBERT TABER as a co-organizer of the FPCC and said TABER drafted the aforementioned FPCC advertisement. Dr. SANTOS-BUCH further testified that he and TABER obtained $3,500 from the Cuban Government through the son of Cuba's Foreign Minister, which funds, along with about $1,100 collected from supporters of the FPCC, paid for the cost of aforementioned advertisement in "The New York Times".

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a recent FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party (CP) members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization. This source asserted that the SWP members believed that they had achieved a great influence in the course of the Cuban revolution through their control of the FPCC.

On February 10, 1961, a second source advised that PHIL BART, National Organizational Secretary and member of the National Committee, CP, USA, had reportedly stated recently that the FPCC had been captured by the Trotskyites, but that the CP had not given up in the FPCC.

The SWP and the CP, USA have been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order #10450.

Subsequently, CASTRO with 82 followers departed Mexico aboard the yacht "Granma" and landed in Oriente Province about December 2, 1956, and from there waged guerrilla warfare against the Government of FULGENCIO BATISTA, then President of Cuba. On January 1, 1959, BATISTA fled Cuba and sought asylum in the Dominican Republic. FIDEL CASTRO ascended to power and is now Prime Minister of Cuba.

(Letterhead of 26 of July Movement,
New York, N.Y.)

New York, August 6, 1961

Dear Comrade:

The administration of the 26 of July Movement in Cuba indicates to us here in New York what measures should be taken, what agreements should be reached and what tasks are to be done.

According to the instructions which we have up to the present time, the 26 of July is a revolutionary organization which is striving peacefully to bring the truth of our revolution to the American people and it is registered in Washington under this form of principles. Since we defend the postulates of a foreign government, in the eyes of the United States and its laws, we are foreign agents; wherefore, every one of us who is an officer (literally, "mostly responsible") has to be registered in Washington as such.

Every meeting to be held and every task to be done should always be in the name of the Movement, since under any other name it could be a violation of the United States laws, because it has not been registered. We can make all types of propaganda, in writing, on the radio and on films; we can picket or hold meetings, provided they are of a revolutionary nature, in which the members acquire knowledge and revolutionary political indoctrination. We give you this information so that all may know fully what our duties are.

All these activities cannot be carried on in any other type of organization, like social or recreation clubs, since this type of organization has to be registered as a social or recreational one and cannot engaged in any type of propaganda in favor of the Revolution.

By the 15th of this month, all the officers of the delegations throughout the United States have to present in Washington their forms registering them as foreign agents.

All the comrades who have been designated for the various positions must be aware of the obligations they have assumed, and if they cannot for any reason accept this responsibility, they must so inform immediately, so that another can be appointed in that position.

Fraternally yours.

DETAILS:

The Ku Klux Klan has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The following organizations which have not been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450 are characterized in the latter pages of this report:

Fair Play for Cuba Committee, Chicago Chapter;

Fair Play for Cuba Committee, National.

The July 26th Movement (7-26-M) is a revolutionary organization founded and led by FIDEL CASTRO, now Prime Minister of Cuba.

I. ORGANIZATION AND BACKGROUND

A. Sections

Information furnished originally that the 7-26-M of Chicago was divided into three distinct districts, the North Side, the South Side, and the West Side is erroneous. The error was caused by the close relationship of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), Chicago, which is so divided and the 7-26-M. There is no known divisional or sectional breakdown of the 7-26-M of Chicago.

B. Records

On July 14, 1961, a meeting of the 7-26-M was held at the apartment of [redacted] at which time it was learned that the [redacted] of the 7-26-M are located at this apartment in [redacted] custody.

(CG T-1, 7/19/61)

C. Aims and Purposes

On August 3, 1961, [redacted]
[redacted], self-admitted member of the 7-26-M advised the Movement was working only to promote better understanding between Cuba and the United States and operated entirely in the open without concealing any of its identity.

On August 23, 1961, AURELIO BERNARDINO SANCHEZ PARRADE, 3129 West Fullerton Avenue, Coordinator of the 7-26-M of Chicago, advised the sole function of the Movement is that of a propaganda organization with the purpose of bettering relations between the United States and Cuba.

b6
b7C

D. Headquarters

Both SANCHEZ and [redacted] advised the 7-26-M has no Chicago headquarters or office space. SANCHEZ advised meetings are held at different places each time.

E. Registration

SANCHEZ advised he is registered with the Registration Section of the United States Department of Justice. He displayed a Photostat copy of his report to the Registration Section dated August 19, 1961, in which he reported he gave two speeches during the past six months, the last having occurred on July 22, 1961, at a celebration of the anniversary of the 7-26-M.

F. Officers

As has been reported previously on January 31, 1961, CG T-2 reported [redacted] leader of the 7-26-M of Philadelphia to head the Movement in Chicago. At that time the officers were designated as follows:

Coordinator

CG 109-12

In the interviews of SANCHEZ and [] they advised SANCHEZ is the only officer of the organization, that being Coordinator. SANCHEZ said such positions as Secretary and Treasurer are named at each meeting to take care of the business at that meeting only. [] denied holding a position in the movement.

G. Membership

BERNARDINO SANCHEZ advised the Movement in Chicago reached its peak in membership in May, 1961, at which time there were approximately sixty-three members. With the exception of himself, most of the prominent members of the Movement have returned to Cuba and the majority of those remaining plan to return to Cuba within the next two months or so. As a result of the departure of members, the size of the Movement in Chicago is dwindling and its activity is slowing down.

He added the prominent members of the Movement in Chicago who have returned to Cuba recently are:

[] hesitated to estimate the number of members in the 26th of July Movement in Chicago because there was no membership list and no roster of members was maintained. Probably there would be 50 or 60 members. Before a new candidate was admitted to membership, the members made certain the candidate was serious in his attitude regarding the organization; they wanted no members who were frivolous or not serious regarding the Cuban Revolution.

b6

H. Finances

[] advised money had been collected by the 7-26-M of Chicago to support five schools in Chicago.

CUBA.

CG 109-12

He reported this money had been mailed to someone in Cuba in the form of a money order, but he denied knowing who obtained the money order or any of the details of the organization's finances. He denied having a bank account for himself or the Movement.

BERNARDINO SANCHEZ advised money had been sent to Cuba from time to time to help the "Year of Education Program" there. He said this money had been raised through contributions and social functions, the latest of which occurred on July 22, 1961, at the celebration of the anniversary of the 7-26-M. He said this function netted approximately $200 which was taken to Cuba by [redacted] when he went to Cuba in early August, 1961.

On [redacted], while attending a meeting of the West Side Branch of the FPCC of Chicago held at [redacted] [redacted] reported that the 26th of July Movement in the United States has set a goal of $30,000 to send to Cuba and that the Chicago Chapter has a goal of $3,000, of which $1,000 has already been raised and sent to Cuba. He stated that he hoped to raise another thousand dollars at the 26th of July celebration which is to be held at 2757 West LeMoyné, on July 22, 1961.

II. GENERAL ACTIVITIES

Leaflets were obtained announcing that on July 22, 1961, a gala celebration of the anniversary of the 7-26-M under the auspices of that organization would be held at 2757 West LeMoyne Avenue. The affair featured Cuban food, entertainment, and dancing at a cost of $2.00 per person.

A meeting of the 7-26-M was held [redacted] at the apartment of [redacted]. Approximately 50 people attended. The business discussion centered around the planning for the forthcoming 7-26-M celebration to be held at the Russian Center on LeMoyne Avenue, on July 22, 1961.

One man in attendance suggested that cartoons depicting Ku Klux Klan members beating Negroes be erected at the party but the suggestion was turned down because it was felt that some of the FPCC people might be offended. Another suggestion was that a large picture of FIDEL CASTRO be erected, however the only large picture of FIDEL CASTRO the 7-26-M has is one made before he grew his beard.

A brief discussion was held regarding the distribution of the magazine "Bohemia". It was decided to call Havana, Cuba, and determine who was officially responsible for the distribution of "Bohemia" in Chicago.

JOHN ROSSEN also spoke praising the CASTRO regime in Cuba and stating that the progressive people in the United States should support CASTRO. He said that the task of the FPCC is to correctly inform the American people of the existing situation in Cuba.

(CG T-8, 8/2/61)

~~CG T-10~~ advised on December 5, 1958, that JOHN ROSSEN in 1956 was a member of the Loop Section of the CP of Illinois.

CG T-2 advised on August 1, 1960, that JOHN ROSSEN on July 28, 1960, was elected Chairman of the FPCC of Chicago.

RICHARD CRILEY also spoke at the celebration and generally following the approach of ROSSEN made an appeal for a collection. It was learned that approximately $225 was collected.

(CG T-8, 8/2/61)

CG T-8 on December 14, 1960, advised RICHARD CRILEY is presently a member of the State Committee, CP of Illinois, and the 29th Ward Club of the CP.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE,
CHICAGO CHAPTER

A source advised in October, 1960, that the Chicago Chapter of the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC) was formed during the summer of 1960 at Chicago, Illinois, under the direct guidance and leadership of RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the State Committee, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

The Headquarters of the FPCC, Chicago Chapter, are at 180 North Wacker Drive, Chicago, Illinois.

A second source in August, 1960, furnished a leaflet entitled, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba?", distributed by the FPCC, Post Office Box 4555, Chicago 80, Illinois. The aims and purposes of the FPCC as set forth in this leaflet include the following: "To disseminate the truth, to combat untruth; to publish and distribute factual information which the United States mass media suppresses. In general, to contribute to foundations for peace, friendship, and understanding between ourselves and the Cuban people." The leaflet reflects the FPCC plans to accomplish these aims: "By mailing of informational bulletins; organizing public meetings and forums; providing speakers, movies, and slides for meetings of interested organizations; placing ads in newspapers; to visit Cuba and see for themselves what conditions really are."

The first source added that at a meeting of the Chicago Chapter, FPCC, held in Chicago on July 28, 1960, it was mentioned that the membership dues in the FPCC were $5 per year and it was decided by those present at the meeting that payment of the $5 dues would entitle one to dual membership in the national organization as well as the Chicago Chapter.

A third source advised that as of May, 1961, this Committee continued to exist, with the same aims and purposes, but under the direction and leadership of former Communists, members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), and others, who are pro-CASTRO supporters.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On September 25, 1961, a meeting was held at the Russian Cultural Center in Chicago, Illinois. No known members of the July 26th Movement were in attendance although there were approximately 100 to 125 persons there. Three movies were shown; the first movie was on the first year of the Cuban Revolution and depicted the struggle of the young government, the second was a movie of FIDEL CASTRO since he came to power in Cuba, and the third movie showed the Cuban welcome of the Russian astronaut upon his visit to Cuba. There was no indication of an anti-American or pro-Russian theme in any of the three movies but each movie showed only that which appeared to be good in Cuba. There were pamphlets and booklets available, both in Spanish and English which were primarily concerned with propaganda in favor of the present Cuban Government. After the movies an individual gave a short speech and asked that people contribute money in amounts of $25.00 for the purpose of supporting the 7-26-M in Chicago to pay expenses, the rental of halls and other items. None of the money was to be sent to Cuba for any purpose whatsoever. The amount collected was $101.00 and some odd cents. There was no stated organizational sponsorship for this meeting.

the National Advisory Council of the FPCC.

Characterization of the FPCC is located in the appendix section of this report.

CG T-4 on May 8, 18, 24, June 6, 14, 19 and 21, 1962, advised that there has been no organizational activity on the part of the 7-26-M in the Chicago area since April, 1962. No meetings have been held by the 7-26-M although some individual members maintain a sympathetic attitude towards the FIDEL CASTRO regime.

On June 21, 1962, CG T-5 reported that [redacted]
[redacted] was at the Fuentes Market at Division and Spaulding Streets on June 20, 1962, distributing handbills to individuals in the store. [redacted] the 7-26-M in Chicago, advised that the meeting would be a legal meeting, that permission had been obtained to hold the meeting and that even though the FBI might be present there was nothing to fear except the possible attempt of reactionary groups to break up the meeting. [redacted] was distributing handbills which read "WHAT'S HAPPENING IN CUBA

[] advised that there was still a group of Cubans sympathetic to the CASTRO regime who were planning to return to Cuba by way of Canada or Mexico. [] advised that there was still room for an additional number of Cubans to leave but declined to furnish the names of those planning to depart or the proposed date of their departure. [] asserted that it was now more difficult for the Cubans to leave from the United States by way of Canada due to a more strict vigilance by Canadian and American immigration officers. When it appeared that pro-CASTRO Cubans might be leaving the United States for Cuba by way of Canada, alien identification cards in the possession of the Cubans were picked up. For this reason [] stated some were contemplating leaving the United States through Mexico where they believe it would be easier to cross the border without having to surrender their identification cards. This would facilitate their return to the United States should they desire to come to this country again.

[] asserted that no meetings had been held by the 7-26-M in the past month in the Chicago area, however, he anticipated that some propaganda film would soon be available which would be shown to members of the FPCC and the 7-26-M. This propaganda would include documentary film showing alleged progress by the revolutionary government in Cuba and would also attempt to explain to the Cubans in the United States why it was important to remain in this country where they could tell the truth about the Cuban revolution and explain the progress being made in Cuba by the revolutionary government.

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE
CHICAGO CHAPTER

The mailing address for the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC), Chicago Chapter, is Post Office Box 4474, Chicago 80, Illinois.

A source advised in October, 1960, that the Chicago Chapter of the FPCC was formed during the summer of 1960 at Chicago, Illinois, under the direct guidance and leadership of RICHARD CRILEY, a member of the State Committee, Communist Party (CP) of Illinois.

A second source in August, 1960, furnished a leaflet entitled, "What Is Really Happening in Cuba?" distributed by the FPCC, Post Office Box 4555, Chicago 80, Illinois. The aims and purposes of the FPCC as set forth in this leaflet include the following: "To disseminate the truth, to combat untruth; to publish and distribute factual information which the United States mass media suppresses. In general, to contribute to foundations for peace, friendship, and understanding between ourselves and the Cuban people." The leaflets reflects the FPCC plans to accomplish these aims: "By mailing of informational bulletins; organizing public meetings and forums; providing speakers, movies, and slides for meetings of interested organizations, placing ads in newspapers; to visit Cuba and see for themselves what conditions really are."

The first source added that at a meeting of the Chicago Chapter, FPCC, held in Chicago on July 28, 1960, it was mentioned that the membership dues in the FPCC were $5 per year, and it was decided by those present at the meeting that payment of the $5 dues would entitle one to dual membership in the national organization as well as the Chicago Chapter.

A third source advised that as of May, 1961, this Committee continued to exist, with the same aims and purposes, but under the direction and leadership of former communists, members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP), and others who are pro-CASTRO supporters.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~APPENDIXFAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contains a full page advertisement captioned "What Is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. CHARLES A. SANTOS-BUCH identified himself and ROBERT TABER as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and TABER obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On October 3, 1960, a source advised that the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) in New York had become active in the FPCC, and that SWP members, in a FPCC election, had been able to remove several Communist Party (CP) members who were on the Executive Board of the FPCC and gain control of the organization.
